

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the U. S. Ordnance Depot of the Black Hills, at Igloo, South Dakota, will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of its establishment in a joint observance with Armed Forces Day on the twelfth day of May, 1962; and

WHEREAS, the Black Hills Ordnance Depot has, through its opportunities for employment and its tremendous payroll, contributed greatly to the economy of the state; and

WHEREAS, the employes and their families who have comprised the residency of the community of Igloo, have worked consistently and diligently toward the establishment and maintenance of an attractive and hospitable city;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim the twelfth day of May, 1962, as and urge the citizens of our State to give full consideration to the beneficial advantages which this installation has brought to South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of South Dakota to be affixed this 27th day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.
